Starting signal in the Olympic year

Riding horses of the January Online Auction have arrived in Verden

Verden. The time has finally come again: the first auction horses of the Olympic year have moved into their stalls at the Niedersachsenhalle. The 45 selected dressage horses and 22 show jumpers will find new owners at the Verden Auction Online on Saturday, January 27.

The auction candidates can be watched daily in training until January 27 and tried out by appointment. The first auction lot of the new year is headed by the Blue Hors Fifty Cent/Benidetto son Fifty Fifty (breeder and exhibitor: Jochen Dittmer, Kirchlinteln). The highly talented dressage horse is equipped with all possibilities and carries the head number one. Each auction horse is presented with photos, videos and all important information on the Hannoveraner Verband's auction website www.verdener-auktion-online.com.

On Saturday, January 20, the presentation of the dressage and show jumping horses will be broadcast live on www.hannoveraner.com from 10 a.m. On Friday, January 26, the second presentation with livestream will take place from 10 a.m., before things get virtually exciting on Saturday, January 27, with the start of the final bid up from 2 p.m.. The first bids can already be submitted from Sunday, January 21.
