For the second time with Show Jumping Masters

Licensing and stallion sales of the jumping stallions

Verden. From December 1 to 3, the Niedersachsenhalle in Verden belongs to Hannover's top-class show jumpers. For the second time, the licensing and stallion sales will be held as part of the Hannoveraner Show Jumping Masters. 36 young stallions will compete for the coveted positive licensing decision, while the four-, five-, six- and seven- and eight-year-olds will compete for the Masters titles.

Compared to last year, there will be some changes in the licensing of the jumping stallions. The licensing of the young stallions will be held on December, 2 and 3. The Hannoveraner Show Jumping Masters will already start one day earlier on December 1. The exciting stallion sales, which takes place as an OnLive auction, begins on December 3 at 6 pm CET.

The collection of the stallion licensing has a lot to offer. Not only the stallions themselves promise interesting hours in Verden due to their performances shown at the pre-selection. This promise is backed up by highly successful dam lines. For example with the head number 1, the full brother of Büttner's Minimax, who is currently in top form with Janne-Friederike Meyer-Zimmermann. Four stallions go back to a Hannoveraner Mare of the Year and are thus directly related to Olympic horses in show jumping (Fine Lady) and eventing (fischerChipmunk FRH) as well as winners in World Cup show jumping (Saint Amour). The sires of the collection include Hannoveraner sires such as All Star, Perigueux, Stolzenberg or Diacontinus as well as international greats such as Eldorado v. d. Zeshoek, Comme il faut or Aganix du Seigneur Z.

Furthermore, one can be curious to see who will become "Hanoverian Stallion of the Year" in the varied show programme of the licensing on Saturday. Sport, breeding, Hannoveraner and international bloodlines. Everything comes together in Verden and offers space for exchange among horse people.
